

21st November, 1950.

Dear Mr. Wallis,

I have just heard from Yates that his material will ready for you in two or three days' time, and that he proposes to send it to you direct. Consequently I am sending with this only a note from my publishers on the English and foreign editions so far of "Statistical Methods".

Yours sincerely,