

May 4, 1937

Dear Watkins,

If I remember right, I have not been approached about Slater as a candidate for the Genetical Society. If he is the man I know he is quite a good worker in human genetics, and would be perfectly suitable for membership.

It is very good to hear that there are more candidates than vacancies. I do not think this has been so, at least for many years.

Yours sincerely,