

Notebook 11c

Northwest W.A. - Billinge's information

Shapes and forms of various trees.

Carriage horses, drags, old lady with powdered wig, bowing gentleman, also court lady with peaked nose and chin and poke bonnet curtsying to royalty.

Also the lion at the entrance to Royalty's residence, also Pilgrim father and mother also Xmas bush and moodurt blossom and goongang or domburn and gowerday.

See or write to Mr. Maitland about Lengo's footprints at Weeraginmarree and north from there of the stone forms of women, children and yeela at Lengagoon, the creek next to and north of Weeraginmarree.

Kajja, kajjaman is a series of nyeerimba from Beedaboogan and Billamurragoon where there are some curious holes near the beach which Billingee says have no bottom.

Northwest

Wardaba is a devil belonging to the mangroves, white all over - jabbulyoo (mud).

Ngarree is also white.

Jooarree is also white. (See beliefs)

Joogurdurdoe - the name of the little babbagoona fish which can only be killed in the rocks (ngaggoola) but woondoongoo time.

Kanjeejoonoo - using oyster as bait.

P. 3 (back)

Kanjee joonoo - using oyster bait

Langara joonoo - fishing with karrajoona bait

Langara wallee, nē'am wallee, forbidden food

(Would bring rain if eaten).

P. 4

Eebala made Mandabulla neam, and Manda said to himself, "He gives me no fish or only very little." Mandabul went cold and shivered and

(Yoogooderayinna - little bit beelee)

INSECTS, etc.

Mulguroorung - I have a specimen of the mulguroorung. Gave it to Woodward who couldn't classify it - called it a spider.

Bindha-bindha - water beetle, dark green

Karrboorna - another water beetle, grooved like a shield.

Koonyooloo - a species of grub, also moon. (non-edible)

Bindha-bindha - butterflies

Winya-winya - a winter insect