

MAIL 25-11-27

NEWS 7-11-27

NEWS 9-11-27

Crown Solicitor

Mr. Albert J. Hannan, the Crown Solicitor, who left for England this week to represent the State on important legal business, is a distinguished officer of the South Australian Public Service, in which he has risen rapidly since he entered it 14 years ago.

MR. A. J. HANNAN

In 1909 with first-class honors in classics and took the David Murray scholarship. He graduated as Bachelor of Laws in 1912, having won the Stow Prize in 1910 and 1912, and the David Murray scholarship again in 1912. Two years later he received the M.A. degree.

NEWS 5-11-27 PERTH EXAMINATIONS

Musical Directors Impressed

Dr. E. Harold Davies (Director of the Elder Conservatorium) and Prof. Bernard Heinze (Director of the Melbourne University Conservatorium) were passengers on the East-West express which arrived in Adelaide from Perth last night.

NEWS 8-11-27

Dr. A. E. V. Richardson (director of Waite Agricultural Research Institute) expects to reach Melbourne on his return from the Imperial Agricultural Conference in time to attend the next meeting of the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research on December 12.

ADV. 12-11-27

At the University of Adelaide on Friday afternoon the staff met to say farewell to Mr. William Fuller, lecturer in histology, who will retire at the end of the year after 47 years' service in the University.

MUSIC EXAMINATIONS

Progress in Western Australia

VIEWS OF PROF. DAVIES

Prof. E. Harold Davies has returned to Adelaide after a successful examination season in Western Australia, which included the metropolitan area and the gold-fields. He was accompanied by Prof. Bernard Heinze, of Melbourne.

NEWS 8-11-27

Mr. Forder, who recently returned from America after a visit of eight months, gained his Bachelor of Engineering degree at the Adelaide University in 1925, and early in 1927, in company with Mr. S. M. Blaskett, another young man of Adelaide, went to America for further experience in electrical engineering.

MR. H. FORDER

X REG 12-11-27

At the University on Friday afternoon the staff met to say farewell to Mr. William Fuller, lecturer in histology, who will retire at the end of the year after 47 years' service in the University.

Energetic Churchman

Archdeacon John Stoward Moyes, who is interesting himself in the needs of the unemployed, is one of the most popular, most energetic, and best-read churchmen in the Anglican community.

ARCHDEACON J. S. MOYES

On his return he was appointed to the rectory of St. Cuthbert's, Prospect, where he remained until 1919, before returning as rector to St. Paul's, Port Pirie, until 1921. Mr. Moyes took charge of St. Batholomew's Church, Norwood, in 1921, and has held that living since.

NEWS 11-11-27

EXAMINATION TIME

Undergraduates on Mettle

BUSY STUDENTS

There is bustle in the main halls of the University. Laughter and noise have been put to flight, and calm reason and readiness and black care severely threaten the undergraduates.

Seventy Centres

For the convenience of juvenile examinees there are 40 permanent and 30 local centres throughout the State. These public examinations will begin on Tuesday, November 22.

almost to death. For every school wants to have the best average of passes in the State. It is generally the rule that as soon as an examination is over an inquest is held by the candidates.

Ways of China

Let those who pass and those who will live to pass some day thank their stars they were not born in China, which is a country riddled with competitive examinations.

ADV. 14-11-27

Mr. L. A. Mander, after visiting his parents, left for the United States on Sunday evening. Mr. Mander, who was formerly connected with the South Australian Workers' Educational Association, recently resigned from the position of Director of Tutorial Classes in Auckland, New Zealand.

REG. 17-11-27

ADELAIDE UNIVERSITY

The agenda for the meeting of the senate of the Adelaide University on Wednesday refers to the affiliation of "Strathspey" Mitcham, the name of which is to be decided by the council of the college founded there.

ADV. 15-11-27

UNIVERSITY RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE AT MITCHAM

The new residential college, which has recently been founded at Strathspey, Mitcham, will, it is expected, be ready to receive students into residence when the University year begins in March next.

MAIL 19-11-27

Mr. I. G. Reimann, of the Conservatorium, who may be looked upon as the father of piano playing in Adelaide, has arranged three student recitals for his students, to be given in the South Hall of the Conservatorium on November 25, 28, and 30.