

Students' Pranks.

A large staff of police had been placed in the University grounds to prevent too great a display of lights...

REC. 5-5-24
DON'T BE LONG, BERTIE.

Enthusiastic 'Varsity Students.

Good Fun Without Vulgarity.

No regular 'rag' occurred at the Adelaide University on Wednesday morning in the presence of the Duke...

When the procession of the members of the Senate appeared, shouts of 'Here comes the royal guard' were heard...

The headmaster of a famous college, in black gown and red hood...

'Where's Doakyn'

When the royal cars were driven from the main entrance of the University to the front of the Elder Hall...

Those of the youthful crowd who were drawn from the ceremony then had to find some other form of amusement...

A Cheerful Victim.

The next object for the witticisms of the crowd was Brig-Gen. O. F. Phillips (State director of the royal court)...

As soon as the Duke appeared at the entrance of the hall, a large body of expressive foot police appeared from no-man's-land...

The Commissioner of Police (Brig-Gen. Leane), in the leading vehicle, watched with satisfaction the excellent work done by his men...

What Might Have Been.

To capture the Duke, and to lead him round to the union room, there to make a speech...

REC. 6-5-24
A STATE FUNERAL.

The Late Mr. Justice Poole.

Long Cortège of Mourners.

A State funeral was in the afternoon the remains of the late Justice Poole, which were solemnly laid to rest in the North Road Cemetery on Thursday.

A large concourse of mourners attended representing, besides the family and relatives of the deceased, His Excellency the Governor, the Government, the Judicial Bench, the Parliament, the legal profession, and public institutions...

At the Grangeville. A brief service was conducted in the mortuary chapel by the Rev. Canon R. P. A. Hewitt of St. Andrew's, Walker Hill...

Among Those who stood around the grave and paid their last respects were:

The Private Secretary (Mr. Loch Wanser), representing the Governor, the Hon. J. G. Murray, the Chief Secretary (Hon. H. Tasse), the Commissioner of Crown Lands (Mr. H. Cook), the Hon. J. P. Beattie, the Hon. J. G. Murray, the Hon. J. G. Murray...

Chief (Mr. G. W. Hlinaworth), Messrs. R. Duncan (President), F. N. Smith and H. Dobbie (Vice-Presidents), representing the Chamber of Manufactures...

Floral Tributes.

Beautiful floral tributes were forwarded by His Excellency Sir Tom Bridges, Lady Bridges, Sir George Murray, Sir George and Lady Brookman, Sir J. Lancelotti...

REC. 6-5-24

Mr. F. B. McBrady, B.A., LL.D., Deputy Master of the Supreme Court, Acting Chief Clerk, Deputy Registrar in Admiralty...

ADV. 7-5-24

Mr. Wesley H. James, B.E., B.S., has been appointed structural designer in connection with the new city bridge.