

Concert by Members of Staff

A varied programme was submitted by members of the Adelaide Conservatorium last night before a large audience... The concert was opened with a sonata for piano and violin by Gabriel Grieg...

In four movements, the composition opened with a grave-sounding, to an air of sadness, but a lively scherzo, and a jovial waltz finale.

Miss Widda's playing was marked by unusual clarity, strength and vigour of impeccable technique, and Mr. Schilling played with his accustomed temperance and control... Mr. William Silver's pianoforte playing found great favor, and a rarely played score, a group of Chopin's numbers in the form of a waltz, was played by Miss C Sharp Minor...

Mr. Harold Parsons, Mrs. Bass, gave an excellent solo two Dances, the second being 'Valrainva', a muted, mellow thing of haunting melody, and 'Chanson Bretonne' by the waltz was received as the spirit of northern folk music... The next concert will be given by students on Thursday.

Miss Avery also heard as a soloist in a group of piano numbers, which comprised the second movement from 'Sextet in D Minor' by B. J. Dale, and the 'Immeties' by John McEwan...

Miss. Bae, contributed two groups of songs, the first being 'The Father's Song', from 'Hans and Gretel' (Humperdink), which met with the highest approval... The next concert will be given by students on Thursday.

REG 22-6-27

At a meeting of the council of the League of South Australia held on Monday evening, Mr. F. S. Stanley, was re-elected secretary in succession to Mr. G. S. Reed...

ADV 22-6-27

THE RENAISSANCE IN FLORENCE.

LECTURE BY PROFESSOR HANCOCK.

There was a large attendance at the Private View of the University, on Tuesday evening, when Professor W. K. Hancock delivered the last of a series of three lectures on 'The Renaissance in Florence'... The Vice-Chancellor of the University (Sir William Mitchell) occupied the chair.

which proved to place the Adelaide Conservatorium in the Commonwealth... The chairman of the Repatriation Department for the past year was Sir George Brookman... At the first meeting of the Adelaide Stock Exchange on Monday morning, the speaker stated: 'We all sincerely regret the death of Sir George Brookman this morning...'

A Public-spirited Man.

At the first meeting of the Adelaide Stock Exchange on Monday morning, the speaker stated: 'We all sincerely regret the death of Sir George Brookman this morning... Sir George Brookman was a public-spirited man, whose loss will be very sincerely felt...'

Bank Director's Regret.

The chairman of the Board of Directors of the Bank of Adelaide, Mr. Arthur Waterhouse said he was grieved to hear of the death of Sir George... He had always been interested in the members of the staff, whose welfare received his kind consideration...

Valued Services Lost.

The engineer and manager of the Adelaide Electric Supply Company, Mr. H. Wheddon said he had been intimately associated with Sir George Brookman for many years... He felt that he had lost a sincere personal friend...

NEWS 20-27

Great Work for School of Mines

Sir Landon Bonilton (president of the Adelaide Council of South Australia) School of Mines, said he was glad to hear that Sir George Brookman had been elected an intimate acquaintance... He felt that he had lost a sincere personal friend...

His connection with the 'South Australian Mines and Industries' would always be remembered... The council manifested its keen appreciation of the services he had rendered... He had had a distinguished career, which in its incidence proved of considerable advantage to the Western Australian community...

...which proved to place the Adelaide Conservatorium in the Commonwealth... The chairman of the Repatriation Department for the past year was Sir George Brookman... At the first meeting of the Adelaide Stock Exchange on Monday morning, the speaker stated: 'We all sincerely regret the death of Sir George Brookman this morning...'

Set a Fine Example.

The Attorney-General (Hon. H. Hornbury), when he spoke of the death of Sir George Brookman, said that the death of a spirited citizen has passed away, and the country has lost a member of its nobility... The Minister of Agriculture (Hon. J. Cowan) stated: 'I deeply regret to learn of the death of Sir George Brookman...'

The Minister of Education (Hon. M. O'Shane) said he was grieved to hear of the death of Sir George Brookman...

The Gift of the School of Mines.

The President of the Council of the School of Mines and Industries (Sir Landon Bonilton) said that on Monday afternoon... Sir George Brookman I cannot say I was surprised, remembering how ill he had been for years... He had always been interested in the members of the staff, whose welfare received his kind consideration...

The Government of the day decided to place £5,000 on the Estimates as the first instalment for the building of the school... Sir George Brookman made his very generous contribution of £15,000, and the result was that the building could have been more fortunate... He had always been interested in the members of the staff, whose welfare received his kind consideration...

"A Notable Citizen."

In expressing regret at the death of Sir George Brookman, the Lord Mayor (Sir Wallace Hart), at a meeting of the Adelaide City Council on Monday afternoon, said: 'Citizens this morning received with deep sorrow the news that Sir George Brookman had passed away... He had had a distinguished career, which in its incidence proved of considerable advantage to the Western Australian community...'

...which proved to place the Adelaide Conservatorium in the Commonwealth... The chairman of the Repatriation Department for the past year was Sir George Brookman... At the first meeting of the Adelaide Stock Exchange on Monday morning, the speaker stated: 'We all sincerely regret the death of Sir George Brookman this morning...'

...which proved to place the Adelaide Conservatorium in the Commonwealth... The chairman of the Repatriation Department for the past year was Sir George Brookman... At the first meeting of the Adelaide Stock Exchange on Monday morning, the speaker stated: 'We all sincerely regret the death of Sir George Brookman this morning...'

...which proved to place the Adelaide Conservatorium in the Commonwealth... The chairman of the Repatriation Department for the past year was Sir George Brookman... At the first meeting of the Adelaide Stock Exchange on Monday morning, the speaker stated: 'We all sincerely regret the death of Sir George Brookman this morning...'

...which proved to place the Adelaide Conservatorium in the Commonwealth... The chairman of the Repatriation Department for the past year was Sir George Brookman... At the first meeting of the Adelaide Stock Exchange on Monday morning, the speaker stated: 'We all sincerely regret the death of Sir George Brookman this morning...'

...which proved to place the Adelaide Conservatorium in the Commonwealth... The chairman of the Repatriation Department for the past year was Sir George Brookman... At the first meeting of the Adelaide Stock Exchange on Monday morning, the speaker stated: 'We all sincerely regret the death of Sir George Brookman this morning...'