

STUDENT CONCERT

BANKING TENDENCIES.

Elder Conservatorium

A number of young singers and instrumentalists... The concert items were: 'The Conservatorium last night...'

AN ECONOMIST'S VIEWPOINT.

Mr. A. L. G. MacKay (Lecturer in Economics at the University of Adelaide) delivered the first of a series of winter lectures... 'The future of banking in Australia...'

agricultural world tour, conditions in Great Britain to study the first hand in Japan, Denmark, Sweden, America, somewhat scanty remaining material in Japan, Java, Canada, and South Africa Australia. It would be a great scientific...'

Miss Jessie Dixon, a young pianist, contributed the first of a series of winter lectures... 'The future of banking in Australia...'

REG 29-6-27

ALSO ADV.

At the end of this week, Mr. T. H. Jones, M.Sc., will resign from his position as a teacher of theory in the Elder Conservatorium...'

ADV 30-6-27

AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH

DR. RICHARDSON'S REPORT.

NEW LEGISLATION PROPOSED.

In a report presented to the Minister of Agriculture, and Great Britain... 'The future of banking in Australia...'

REG 30-6-27 SCIENCE AND AGRICULTURE.

Report by Dr. Richardson.

The Minister of Agriculture (Hon. J. Cowan) stated on Wednesday that the Director of the Waite Research Institute at Urrbrae (A. E. V. Richardson) had presented a report to the Government upon his enquiries made abroad on the matter of science and agriculture.

ANTHROPOLOGICAL RESEARCH.

Under the auspices of the Board of Anthropological Research, a display of scientific photography... 'The future of banking in Australia...'

REG 29-6-27

ALSO ADV.

At the end of this week, Mr. T. H. Jones, M.Sc., will resign from his position as a teacher of theory in the Elder Conservatorium...'

ADV 29-6-27

For some years the Council of the University adopted a policy of hanging in the council chamber photographs of former Chancellors and other persons prominent in connection with the institution...'

REG 29-6-27

ALSO ADV.

At the end of this week, Mr. T. H. Jones, M.Sc., will resign from his position as a teacher of theory in the Elder Conservatorium...'